

Job Assignment within the International Development Cooperation – Water Sector Syria

Our client is an independent consulting and engineering company, with more than 60 years of experience worldwide and a multidisciplinary team of qualified and experienced professionals. For the staffing in a new project in Syria we are looking for a highly experienced Programme Manager, with comprehensive experience in the water sector and capacity building of water utilities.

Program Manager (m/f)

Qualification:

Highly experienced Programme Manager (PM), comprehensive experience in the water sector, capacity building of water utilities, fluent in English, minimum 15 years of professional experience, Middle East experience, intercultural competence, good communication skills, fluent in English, ideally some knowledge of the Arabic language.

Tasks:

The PM will represent the Head of the PIU who will follow up the implementation of the construction works for improvement of water supply services of the utility. The supervision services are being carried out by another Consultant. Further tasks of the project cover the preparation of: a water safety plan, a leakage control programme, an operation & maintenance concept, improvement of finance and accounting and customer information management including procurement and supervision of a comprehensive customer survey.

Under the Investment Fund (IFWM) which is to be managed as well under the project procurement of water meters and O+M equipment for water supply services as well as hardware and software for customer information and billing and accounting is to be carried out. The project will run 4.5 years, project site is Aleppo.

Application:

For further information please do not hesitate to contact Mr. Volker Rojahn. You can reach him via Phone: +49 (0)721-62 687 60 or the Mobile Phone: +49 (0)160-885 63 31. Please send your short application with the reference rc-2010-0210 via E-Mail to vr@rojahn-consulting.com.